

1. What is a good story? What were the best parts? What parts were less effective?
2. How was the audio in the video?
3. Which footage in the video report was b-roll footage from the PBS NewsHour? Which footage was shot by the students?
4. Examining the transitions of the footage, did the edits enhance or detract from the video report?
5. Considering the title and subject of the report, were the interview subjects helpful?
6. Write down the people the students interviewed, how did the interviews explain the topic?
7. Was the video report balanced and unbiased?